

Contents

Let's Talk Religion	1
A. Since having children, I think a lot more about God and spiritual issues. Do all parents go through this?	6
B. Can we teach our children about God and give them a good moral upbringing without going too far and becoming weird?	9
C. How important is it to teach children about spiritual things? Won't they learn on their own when they're older?	14
D. How can I teach my kids about God when I don't know much about the Bible and my own spiritual life is shaky at best?	17
1. God	19
A. Can my children know who God is and what he's really like?	20
B. How can I explain "a relationship with God" to my children?	25
C. How can I motivate my children to want to learn about God?	29
D. How can I explain to my children what God's character is like?	33
E. How can I answer my children's questions about such things as God's omnipotence and the Trinity?	44
F. How can I help my children have a strong faith in God?	51

2. The Bible	61
A. How can I show my children that the Bible is trustworthy?	62
B. What kind of Bible or Bible storybook should I use with my children?	72
C. How can I tell my kids in a simple way what the Bible is all about?	76
D. What can I do to help my kids get a handle on how all the pieces of the Bible fit together?	88
E. What are some practical tips for reading the Bible to or with my kids?	97
F. How can I help my kids read through the Bible?	106
G. Is there value in having my kids memorize verses from the Bible?	114
3. Church	117
A. Can I raise good kids who believe in God without taking them to church?	118
B. What's the purpose of church, and how can it help my children?	124
C. Isn't there a right and a wrong way for a church to believe and teach? Is it important to take my children to a certain church?	136
D. My spouse and I come from different church backgrounds. How can we agree on where to take the children to church?	142
E. What about special services for children, such as baptism, dedication, and confirmation? Are these an important part of my children's spiritual development?	145

4. Prayer	149
A. How can I explain to my children what prayer is?	150
B. How important is it for my children to kneel and fold their hands and close their eyes?	154
C. How can I help my children's prayers grow with them so that they don't grow out of them?	158
D. What things should I be encouraging my children to pray about?	164
E. Are memorized prayers important, and are they effective?	171
F. How do I explain things to my children when their prayers aren't answered?	175
5. Angels and Heaven	181
A. How can I answer my kids' questions about angels?	182
B. What can I tell my kids about heaven?	187
Conclusion	195
Can we be sure our prayers and efforts will help?	195