CONTENTS

Introduction xiii
The Importance of Anthropology to Christian Witness xiii
Not for Scholars but for Practitioners xv

PART I
THE PERSPECTIVE

1. Why Anthropology for Cross-Cultural Witnesses? 1
Integrational Thought 1
Introduction 2
1. Anthropology Attempts to Deal with What People Actually Do and Think 4
2. Anthropology Historically Has Dealt Primarily with Nonwestern Peoples 5
3. Anthropology Has Developed the Culture Concept 6
4. Anthropology Takes a Holistic View of People 7
5. Anthropology Is a Perspective, Not Simply a Subject 8
6. Anthropology Focuses on Communication 10
7. Anthropology Distinguishes between Forms and Meanings 10
8. Anthropology Has Developed the Concept of Worldview 11
9. Anthropology Has Developed the Research Method Most Helpful to Christian Workers 12
10. Anthropology Deals with Culture Change 12

2. Reality, Perception, and Mental Mapping 14
Integrational Thought 14
Introduction 14
The Basic Problem: How Do We Know? 15
The Traditional Approach to This Problem 15
Alternative Understandings of Reality 17
Critical/Mediated Realism 18
Summary and Amplification 21
Change 22
Where Are We? 23
Understanding Perception 24
Illustrations of Misperceptions 25
Other Possible Perceptions 27
We Are Messengers from God 29

3. A Perspective on Culture 30
Integrational Thought 30
Introduction 31
Cultures Are to Be Respected 32

A Positive or a Negative View of Culture? 33
People and Culture 36
Culture Defined 38
Levels and Types of Culture and Society 40
Cultures and Subcultures 41
More about Culture 44
The Subsystems of Culture 49

4. A Perspective on Worldview 51
Integrational Thought 51
Introduction 51
Worldview Defined 52
Worldview and Sociocultural Specialization 52
Characteristics of Worldviews 55
Functions of Worldview 58
Universals of Worldview 63
Contrasting Worldviews 65
Worldview and Cultural Change 65
Is There a Single Christian Worldview? 67

5. A Cross-Cultural Perspective 69
Integrational Thought 69
Introduction 69
Monoculturalism 69
Three Other Monocultural Positions 73
A Cross-Cultural Perspective 74
Evaluating Cultures 76
Biblical Sociocultural Adequacy 79
My Attitude toward American Culture 81

6. God, Culture, and Human Beings 85
Integrational Thought 85
Introduction 86
Historical Overview 86
Western Theology—Strengths and Weaknesses 87
The Behavioral Sciences—Strengths and Weaknesses 89
Possibility of Combining Strengths 90
An Integrated Approach 92

7. Human Beings and Race 97
Integrational Thought 97
Introduction 98
Believing Is Seeing 98
The Perspective 99
The Fossil Record 100
Implications 102
Human Prehistory 106
Race 109
Racism 111
Missiological Applications 112

PART II
CULTURE

8. A Model of Culture 115
Integrational Thought 115
Introduction 116
Basic Human Commonality and Cultural Diversity 117
A Model of an Individual Culture and Its Subsystems 122
Structural Integration of Culture 124
Patterning and Performance 126
Dissecting Culture 127
Missiological Applications 129
Conclusion 131

9. Forms and Meanings 132
Integrational Thought 132
Introduction 133
Forms, Surface and Deep 133
Usage, Function, and Meaning 135
Forms Have Multiple Meanings, Functions, and Usages 137
Five Principles 140
Postscript 145

10. The Individual and Culture 148
Integrational Thought 148
Introduction 149
Relating the Individual to Culture 150
Elements Involved in Relating the Individual and Culture 156
The Individual and Culture Change 160
Summary 162

PART III
RELATING TO THE NONHUMAN UNIVERSE

11. Material Culture and Technology 164
Integrational Thought 164
Introduction 165
Definition 165
Technology: Form, Function, Meaning, Usage 167
Basic Assumptions 168
Early Anthropology 170
Measuring Culture Change Technologically 172
Comparing Whole Cultures 174
Technology and Cultural Complexity 175
Technological Development and Cultural Balance 177
Cross-Cultural Witnesses and Technology 178

12. Economic Culture and Technology 180
Integrational Thought 180
Introduction 181

Organizing Principles 182
Principles of Production 185
Principles of Distribution 186
Markets 187
Principles of Consumption 188
Concepts of Property 190
Economic Structure and the Church 191

13. Religious Belief and Technology 196
Integrational Thought 196
Introduction 197
Anthropologists and "Supernaturalistic" Societies 198
Allegiances 199
Religious Beliefs 201
Religious Practices 205
Religious Practitioners 207
Rituals and Ceremonies 208
Missiological Applications 210

14. Life Cycle 215
Integrational Thought 215
Introduction 216
Diagrams of the Human Life Cycle 217
The Stages and Transitions 218
Implications for Cross-Cultural Witness 228

PART IV
RELATING TO THE HUMAN UNIVERSE

15. Communication: Language 236
Integrational Thought 236
Introduction 237
Definition of Language 238
Language and Meaning 240
Characteristics of Language 242
Language Is the Primary Vehicle of Culture 247
Language and the Cross-cultural Witness 250

16. Communication: Beyond Language 254
Integrational Thought 254
Introduction 255
Definition and Functions 255
Ethnocentrism and Art 258
Art, Forms and Meanings 260
Use of Art in Enculturation 263
Other Communicational Uses of Art 266
Use of Arts in Christian Witness 267
Combining Media 269

17. Education 273
Integrational Thought 273
Introduction 274
What Is the Nature of Education? 274
Types of Educational Procedures 275
The Orientation of Educational Procedures 277
Purposes of Educational Procedures 278
Schooling Against Education: Western Ways 280
Education in Cross-Cultural Ministry 286

18. Family 290
Integrational Thought 290
Introduction 291
Family 291
Marriage 299
Missiological Applications 309

19. Status and Role 313
Integrational Thought 313
Introduction 314
What Are Status and Role? 314
Kinds of Status/Role 316
Ascribed and Achieved 318
Evaluation of Status/Role 320
Applications to Cross-Cultural Ministry 321

20. Grouping 330
Integrational Thought 330
Introduction 331
Bases for Grouping 331
Culturally Defined Groupness and the Church 341

21. Social Control 343
Integrational Thought 343
Introduction 344
An Illustration: How to Dress 344
Mechanisms of Social Control 345
The Integrative Nature of Social Control 353
Missiological Applications 354

PART V
CULTURAL AND WORLDVIEW CHANGE

22. Stability and Change 358
Integrational Thought 358
Introduction 359
Cultures Both Persist and Are Changed 360
Change: General Considerations 366
Change Processes 369

Results of Change 373
Missiological Applications 374
Conclusion 379

23. Change Barriers and Facilitators 380
Integrational Thought 380
Introduction 380
Barriers to Change 381
Facilitators of Change 387
Strategy for Cross-Cultural Workers 396

24. Advocates of Change 398
Integrational Thought 398
Introduction 399
Advocates and Implementors 399
Focus on Advocacy 402
The Organization as a Culture 404
Church and Mission Organizations as Cultures 405
Focus on the Advocate 408
What Can Be Done to Improve Advocacy Situations? 413

25. Ethics of Change 414
Integrational Thought 414
Introduction 415
A Secular Perspective 416
Three Sets of Ethical Standards 418
Worldview Assumptions the Basis for Ethical Judgments 419
Receptors, Meanings and Motives 419
What Receptors Have a Right to Expect 420
Problems to Contend With 421
Toward a Solution 422
A Case Study: The Ethicality of Missionary Activities 426
Summary 429

26. Dynamics of Worldview Change 433
Integrational Thought 433
Introduction 434
A Basic Model of Worldview Change 434
Change at Many Levels: A Basic Model of Culture 436
Patterns of Worldview Change 437
Four Missiological Concerns 439
Transformational Culture Change 440
An Approach to Transformational Culture Change 441
Some Practical Steps to Take 444

27. Theological Implications of This Approach 447
Integrational Thought 447
Introduction 448
God and Culture 449

Jesus and Culture 449
The War Is Within, Not Between Cultures 451
Contextualization and Encounter 452
Meaning Equivalence Christianity 454
Conclusion 457

PART VI
RESEARCH AND STUDY

28. Research and Study 459
Integrational Thought 459
Introduction 460
The Need to Study as Well as to Do 461
Preparation for the Task 462
Resources Available 463
Times of Research and Study 467
Methods of Research and Study 468
Difficulties in Cross-cultural Research and Study 469
Our Primary Concern 472
Conclusion 474

Bibliography 475

General Index 485

Scripture Index 491