CONTENTS

Chapter I Musical Symbols and Their Time Values 7
The Human Pulse Beat a Standard of Measurement
The Quarter Note

Chapter II Accent and Its Importance in Rhythm 8
The Accented Beat
Observing the Pulse
Observing the Rhythm

Chapter III Measure—Signature—Expression 10
The Measure
The Key Signature
The Time Signature
Dynamics and Tempo

Chapter IV The Director's Technique 12
The Importance of the Baton
The Baton and Hands
Bodily Poise
Introducing the Song
The Left Hand

Chapter V The Accompanist 14
The Importance of Preparation
Sight Reading and Ability to Follow
Extemporization of Accompaniments
Personality of the Accompanist
Rhythmic Drills and Conducting Assignments 15-65

Chapter VI Double or Two-Pulse Rhythm 15

Chapter VII Triple or Three-Pulse Rhythm 22

Chapter VIII Quadruple or Four-Pulse Rhythm 30

Chapter IX Sextuple or Six-Pulse Rhythm 38

Chapter X Compound Triple or Nine-Pulse Rhythm 48

Chapter XI Compound Quadruple or Twelve-Pulse Rhythm 56

Chapter XII Advanced Directing 66
The Four Voice Parts
The More Difficult Compositions
Rehearsal Procedure
Mastery of Melodic Passages
Expression—Shading
Advanced Practice Material
Conducting Problems 69-96